Creative Connections

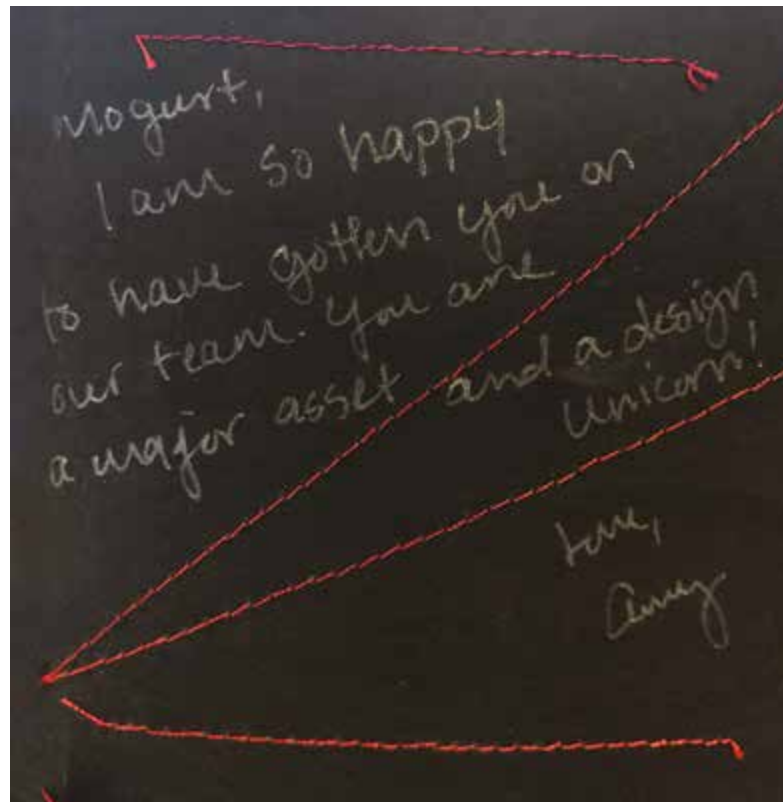

In a year of isolation, people around the world began to find new ways to connect with each other. Time apart became the opportunity for creative connection—for new discoveries of the world around us.

Our close-knit design team found a unique way to continue inspiring and connecting with one another: we began creating postcard-sized pieces of art and mailing them to each other. Our daily walks to the mailbox became a new spark of inspiration—a view into someone else's world. Each designer took the postcard artwork they received and developed a pattern from it. In this way, the Postcard Collection was born.

The patterns came from different minds and disparate experiences; yet in sharing them with each other, we began to find common connections of design. The patterns explore atmospheric impressions, close-up views of the natural world, and graphic elements rendered with organic expressiveness. The collection turns on a theme of personal experience, deeply layered and everywhere inflected by the human touch.

Simple messages of encouragement helped keep our design team connected and inspired while working from home.

Postcards have long been a hallmark of the hospitality experience — a medium for travelers to share new places and new discoveries with people back home. With the Postcard Collection, we rediscover that sense of wonder and joy that fresh experience brings, and the beauty that comes when we share it with others.

The Postcard Collection draws on an optimistic, comforting palette. Soothing muted greens are enlivened with mustard gold, apricot and rusty reds. A mature mauve brings balance and nuance. Patterns can also be custom-colored with your own palette.

CUSTOMIZABLE

Patterns from the collection are available in a variety of constructions. This allows you to match the type of carpet to the needs of each space, while building a coherent look throughout the interior.
